

Eden Rock – St. Barths' art gallery

ART

In the same way Eden Being nurtures local artisans, the Oetker Collection supports both established and up-and-coming talent, through exhibitions and 'meet the artist' experiences.

Laurence Jenkell is one artist exhibited at Eden Rock-St Barths, whose candy sculptures are the outcome of a personal quest asking questions about her heredity. Through this sweet obsession, Jenkell has come up with a unique body of work.
